Dear Dan:

Please refer to our CMCC Doc. No. 151x5.970 covering the cancellation of racks for requirement two and three.

The reduction in cost resulting from the first cancellation for requirement two is estimated to be [REDACTED] and the reduction from the second cancellation for requirement three is estimated to be [REDACTED] for a total estimated reduction of [REDACTED]. These reductions have been computed from the actual funding provided, whereas our previous estimate was based on proposals submitted.

In accordance with your instructions, we will return the two Ampex FR114 units and the one Ampex 350-3R unit to the vendor. The above figures include the credit for this return.

As we discussed, the $19,000 of material remaining at the time of cancellation will be shipped: $5,000 to requirement two and $14,000 to [REDACTED]. We would like your approval, however, of a maximum of $2,200 in costs which will be required to gather, prepare, pack, inspect and ship this material.

Gentlemen:

Reference is made to your CMCC Rec. No. 151X5.970 dated 6 February 1958, concerning rack cancellations.

As previously discussed you will check the Customer No. 2 refund for possible error. It is assumed that this figure does not include the fee. The $19,000 in material must be separated according to customer. The Customer No. 3 material is to be shipped in accordance with previous instructions. When material for Customer No. 2 is ready for shipment, please advise the undersigned and Customer No. 2 will try to arrange for transportation.

Approval is granted to incur a maximum of $2200 in costs to gather, prepare, pack, inspect and ship the material. Please separate the costs by customer.

It is requested that you return the Ampex equipment to the manufacturer since Customer No. 2 does not want it as termination inventory.

Very truly yours,

25X1A
